

I support satellite radio. The musical content, the news, the general overall quality and variety are unmatched by local radio programs, and I enjoy the ability to choose between the two formats when I want.